"You can have flaws, be anxious, and even be angry, but do not forget that your life is the greatest enterprise in the world. Only you can stop it from going bust. Remember that to be happy is not have a sky without a storm, a road without accidents, work without fatigue, relationships without happiness. To be happy is to find strength in forgiveness, hope in battles, security in the stage of fear, love in discord".

Pope Francis

Jesus, we turn to you, our model and mentor of giving and receiving. We recall how you poured yourself out in service to those who crowded around you. We bear in mind, how you withdrew to the mountains to pray and restore what was depleted in your body and spirit. Grant us, Giver of Gifts, the wisdom, inspiration, and discipline to cultivate a healthy balance between generous service to others and compassionate care of ourselves. Amen.
